

Mills impresses but 6 debutants stand no chance

WYCOMBE WANDERERS 5. BROMLEY 0

WITH six players unavailable, Bromley had to call upon three mid-week signings—Dave Mills, Jan Wawrzewski and Graham Farmer—to make their debuts in last Saturday's opening Isthmian League game. The reshuffled Bromley side showed little method and Wycombe took advantage to bang five goals.

Mills, a full-back from Athenian League side Leyton, was the pick of the three new boys. Neither of the two new strikers, Wawrzewski, who was with Beckenham Town last season, or Farmer, a former Kent Schools representative, could elude the defensive net thrown up around the Wanderers' giant centre-half John Delaney.

And Colin Brown, a 57th minute substitute for Farmer, also found himself tightly marked as Bromley's 4-2-4 formation fell apart.

In all six players made their league debuts for Bromley and the most impressive was lively left-winger John Mears.

Of the other men making their league debuts, goalkeeper David Jensen from Carshalton had a busy time, while Roy Pettet worked hard in mid-field.

It was unfortunate that Pat Brown was working and Eric Nottage was attending a wedding as best man. In addition Gaston, Green, Proud and Rhodes were on holiday, while Tait was not picked because he did not attend the Probables v. Possibles trial the previous Thursday. Another absentee against Wycombe was Phil

Amato, who will be leaving Bromley.

The blinding rain did not seem to bother a skilful Wycombe attack and Viv Busby put the home side ahead in the 32nd minute. Three minutes later Tony Horseman let fly with a 30 yard thunderbolt that had Jensen beaten all ends up.

WORLEY'S MAGIC

Wanderers' new outside-left Geoff Anthony impressed despite the tough tackling of Jeff Bridge, but it was that ball-juggling veteran Len Worley, on Wycombe's other wing, who did most of the damage.

A Worley free-kick in the 66th minute enabled Bobby Holt to head the home team 3-0 ahead. Worley hit a post eight minutes later and Horseman slammed in the rebound.

RACED THROUGH

Then, in the last minute, Anthony raced through to lift the ball over the advancing Jensen and complete the scoring.

All Bromley had to show for their efforts were a few unsuccessful scoring attempts by Mears, Wawrzewski and Stonebridge.

Wycombe: Maskell; Temel, Gale; Rundle, Delaney, Hatt; Worley, Lailey, Busby, Horseman, Anthony. Bromley: Jensen; Bridge, Mills; Bonney, Head, Wigham; Pettet, Wawrzewski, Farmer, Stonebridge, Mears. Sub: C. Brown.
